The 2011 European Scientific Conference on Applied Infectious Disease Epidemiology (ESCAIDE) will take place in Stockholm, Sweden, from 6 to 8 November.

As last year, a so called 'Late Breaker' session will be organised at ESCAIDE. The call to submit abstracts to the 'Late Breaker' session opens on 29 August. Please visit the conference website, www.escaide.eu, to read more about the eligibility criteria for abstract submission. The deadline for submitting abstracts to the 'Late Breaker' session is Friday 23 September.

Programme details and conference registration instructions are available on the ESCAIDE website. As in previous years, it is anticipated that the conference will be accredited by the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME) to provide CME credits.
